WEEK 12 THE PROPHETS AND THE RETURN TO THE THRONE

THE PROPHETS AND THE RETURN TO THE THRONE

HEARING GOD IN A NOISY WORLD

GOVERNING STATEMENT™

God speaks to realign His people, confront deviation, and restore His government.

THE PARADOX

Why does a loving God allow seasons of confrontation, correction and crisis through His prophets?

TODAY'S REVELATION

God raises prophets to speak His word, expose hidden sin, confront disobedience, and call His people back to His government, so that mercy, restoration and renewal can be released.

The prophetic voice is not ultimately for judgment, but for the preservation of the people and the advancement of God's redemptive purposes.

> "Surely the Lord God does nothing, unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets."
> AMOS 3:7

KEY SCRIPTURES

AMOS 3:7

"Surely the Lord God does nothing, unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets."

2 CHRONICLES 20:20

"Believe in the Lord your God, so shall you be established; believe His prophets, so shall you prosper."

EZEKIEL 33:7

"So you, son of man, I have set as a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore you shall hear a word from My mouth and warn them from Me."

2 PETER 1:19–21

"And so we have the prophetic word confirmed, which you do well to heed as a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts, knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of any private interpretation, for prophecy never came by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit."

DISCOVER

SCRIPTURE EXPLORATION

Approach: Read each passage slowly and prayerfully. Observe carefully before drawing conclusions.

1 AMOS 3:1–8

"Surely the Lord God does nothing, unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets. … Will a lion roar in the forest, when he has no prey? Surely the Lord God does nothing, unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets."

- What does this passage reveal about God's character and how He governs?
- Why does God choose to reveal His heart through prophets?

2 2 CHRONICLES 20:12–15, 20

"O our God, will You not judge them? … For we do not know what to do, but our eyes are upon You … Believe in the Lord your God, so shall you be established; believe His prophets, so shall you prosper."

- How does Jehoshaphat's response demonstrate the proper posture toward prophetic word?
- What is the relationship between trusting God and listening to His prophets?

3 EZEKIEL 33:1–9

"So you, son of man, I have set as a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore you shall hear a word from My mouth and warn them from Me. … When I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die,' and you do not speak to warn the wicked … his blood I will require at your hand."

- What responsibilities are given to the prophet as a watchman?
- What does this reveal about God's desire for His people?

4 2 PETER 1:19–21

"And so we have the prophetic word confirmed, which you do well to heed as a light that shines in a dark place … prophecy never came by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit."

- Why is the prophetic word reliable and important?
- How should believers respond to the prophetic word today?

THE REVELATION

God speaks through prophets to reveal His purposes, expose hidden sin, confront deviation and call His people back to His government.

The prophetic voice is not primarily a voice of condemnation, but a voice of mercy that seeks to preserve the people, restore alignment and release God's redemptive purposes.

When God's people and leaders reject or ignore His prophetic word, the result is division, judgment and long-term loss.

When His people humble themselves, hear His prophets and respond in faith, there is restoration, stability and renewed influence.

In every generation, God raises prophetic voices to speak into the present, calling His people to return to His throne and to walk in covenant alignment.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. Where might I be resistant to God's corrective voice in my life?
2. How do I discern the difference between God's prophetic voice and my own opinions or the opinions of others?
3. What is one area in my personal, family or professional life where I need to realign with God's government?
4. What practical step will I take this week to listen and respond to God's word?

WEEK 12

THE PROPHETS AND THE RETURN TO THE THRONE

THE PROPHETIC CYCLE™

FROM DEPARTURE TO RESTORATION

God raises prophetic voices to call His people back to His government.

1	2	3	4	5
DEPARTURE	PROPHETIC CALL	CONFRONTATION	RESPONSE	RESTORATION
God's people or leaders turn from His ways.	God raises prophets to speak His word, expose sin and call for repentance.	The prophetic word confronts deviation and invites a decisive response.	The people either harden their hearts or humble themselves and return to God.	God brings renewal, stability and continued advancement of His purposes.
JUDGES 2:11–13	AMOS 3:7	EZEKIEL 33:7–9	2 CHRON 20:20	2 PETER 1:19–21

CYCLE SUMMARY

1. DEPARTURE – Disobedience and deviation create vulnerability and decline.
2. PROPHETIC CALL – God raises prophetic voices to reveal, warn and invite repentance.
3. CONFRONTATION – The prophetic word exposes sin and calls for a response.
4. RESPONSE – The people either harden their hearts or return to God.
5. RESTORATION – God brings renewal, stability and continued advancement of His purposes.

EXECUTIVE INSIGHT™

REVELATION

The prophetic word reveals God's purposes and exposes what is hidden, bringing clarity in times of confusion.

CONFRONTATION

True prophets confront deviation, not to condemn, but to call for repentance and realignment.

RETURN

Restoration begins when God's people hear, humble themselves and respond to His word.

GOVERNMENT

The prophetic voice protects God's government, preserves His people and advances His redemptive purposes.

CONTEMPORARY RELEVANCE

God still speaks today. Leaders and believers must learn to discern, hear and respond to His prophetic word in a noisy world.

EXECUTIVE REFLECTION™

Where am I in this cycle personally, in my family, workplace, community or sphere of influence? What is God saying, and how will I respond?
